REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the claims are allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art fails to show or suggest, either singly or in combination thereof, a glider chair including a footrest panel disposed between left and right seat members, connected securely to the front and rear rods of said base frame, and having left and right sides, each of which has opposite front and rear ends; a cushioning unit including left and right cushioning members, each of which includes a first bracket fixed to one of said front and rear ends of a respective one of said left and right sides of said footrest panel and projecting outwardly therefrom in said transverse direction, and a first roller that is made from an elastomeric material and that is mounted rotatably on said first bracket; wherein a first roller of said right cushioning member collides against the inner end of an adjacent one of the curved upper front and rear rails of the right rail unit when the upper frame is moved to the left position, the first roller of the left cushioning member colliding against the inner end of an adjacent one of the curved upper front and rear rails of the left rail unit when the upper frame is moved to the right position.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
